2. Learned counsel for the parties jointly submit that the controversy involved is squarely covered by the judgment passed in the case of State of Rajasthan & Ors. Vs. Dinesh Kumar Soni: DBSAW No.380/2016 and it is apprised to this court that an SLP as well as review in the SLP against the order above have been dismissed. Observing all those things in a judgment rendered in a batch of Special Appeal Writs led by D.B. Spl. Appl. Writ No.532/2016 (The State of Rajasthan & Ors. vs. Dr. Paritosh Ujjwal & Ors.), relying upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jaggo v. The submission of the learned counsel for the State that in the case of Dr. Paritosh Ujjwal (supra), a Selection Committee had been constituted for the purpose of recruitment of the petitioners therein, whereas in the present case, the aspirants were merely allowed through the advertisement to drop the irrelevant papers in the boxes installed, does not carry much substance. This Court is of the view that in the case of petitioners also, the entire selection process was followed up in accordance with the procedure established by law. The issue involved in this case has adequately been answered and thus the petitioners too deserve to get the same treatment as has been given in the case of Dr. Paritosh Ujjwal (supra). Hence, I am of the view that the controversy involved in the case referred supra and the case in hand is the same and there are no distinguishable features so as to dis entitle the petitioners to get the same benefit as has been given to the petitioners in the case of Dr. Paritosh Ujjwal (supra) in the same terms and conditions and fashion.

4. In view of the ratio laid down in Dr. Paritosh Ujjwal (supra), the present writ petition is allowed.

5. The respondents are directed to verify the documents of each petitioner and compute the services of the petitioners from the date of their initial appointment on temporary/ad-hoc/urgent basis. Upon such verification, if the respondents are satisfied about the genuineness of the documents and the eligibility of the petitioners, the benefit of continuity of services for all purposes shall be granted to them. Appropriate orders be passed within a period of eight weeks from now.
